Who we are

Moniepoint is a financial technology company digitising Africa's real economy by building a financial ecosystem for businesses, providing them with all the payment, banking, credit and business management tools they need to succeed.

If this excites you, it excites us too and we would love to have you.

About the role

Location: Remote

Full time

Position Overview:

As a UX Writer, you'll be the creative mind creating and implementing written content for our digital products (mobile apps, web experiences, etc.) to enhance the user experience.

Collaborating with various teams, you'll contribute to content strategy, aligning it with brand tone and user insights.

What You'll Be Doing:

Create written content for our digital products to ensure a seamless user experience.

Ownership & general maintenance of aspects of the brand - tone of voice, grammar, vocabulary, etc.

Collaborate with cross-functional teams, contributing creativity to brainstorming sessions and collaborative efforts.

Maintain a consistent tone across content in alignment with company brand & values.

Stay attuned to user insights by conducting research to help tailor content to meet their needs and expectations.

Conduct regular reviews in collaboration with stakeholders to ensure a polished and effective user experience.

Edit and revise copy for clarity and accessibility while continuously testing and looking for opportunities to improve users' experience.

What You Bring to the Party:

Education : Bachelor's degree in Human-Computer Interaction, Psychology, Sociology, or something equally cool.

You're a wordsmith with a portfolio that showcases your knack for user-focused content.

Excellent verbal communication and presentation skills.

Familiarity with UX design principles is a plus.

A friendly and collaborative spirit is highly valued.

What we can offer you

Culture -We put our people first and prioritize the well-being of every team member. We've built a company where all opinions carry weight and where all voices are heard. We value and respect each other and always look out for one another. Above all, we are human.

Learning - We have a learning and development-focused environment with an emphasis on knowledge sharing, training, and regular internal technical talks.

Compensation - You'll receive an attractive salary, pension, health insurance, annual bonus, plus other benefits.

Excited to embark on this adventure with us? Drop us your resume, portfolio, and a cover letter that shows us your personality and why you're the missing piece to our puzzle. We can't wait to meet you!
